Declaration of independent elaboration of the written assignment and non-disclosure agreement

I affirm that that I've created this written assignment independently and without any other literature and resources than indicated.

The examination documents in front of me are to be treated in strict confidence.

I hereby make a commitment to the IREB e.V. to treat information about the contents of the documents provided to me for the examination as confidential and to use it only in connection with the examination. I will neither pass this information on to third parties which are not authorized by the IREB e.V. nor make it accessible in other forms to such third parties. I will take all reasonable steps to prevent access of such third parties to this information. This confidentiality obligation exists as long as these examination documents are valid. This non-disclosure agreement does not apply if the information in question can be proven to be common knowledge.

I am aware that in case of non-compliance, the IREB e.V. can call on me to pay damages. The amount of the potential damages is estimated by the IREB e.V. to be at least 10,000 EUR.
